

Letters to No One

by Christine La bella — Sample Chapter

This is placeholder sample text for Letters to No One. Replace this file with a real excerpt from the novel.

Dear no one, she began, because that was easier than choosing a name to write toward. The letters had started as an exercise and become something closer to a habit she couldn't explain.

By the third year, there were boxes of them.

...

Placeholder sample — replace downloads/letters-to-no-one-sample.pdf with the real excerpt.